

Business Level 1 - September start

The BTEC Level 1 Introductory Diploma in Business will allow you to develop your knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals of business and provides a good foundation for progression onto the Level 2 business programme.

This programme will help to prepare you for future work within the industry by developing vital business skills alongside your confidence and professionalism.

Waltham Forest College is putting sustainability at the heart of everything that we do, and in this course, you will gain knowledge on the importance of entrepreneurs to the economy, social change, and solutions for efficient technology systems. Social enterprise, and how businesses can contribute positively to the climate will be explained through discussion on sustainable supply chain sourcing, utilising digital marketing activities for businesses and meeting government initiatives and targets for the environment.

- Sector Overview

The Business Sector is incredibly broad, meaning graduates with the right qualifications have huge scope when choosing a career. Specialist routes may include but are not limited to:

- Marketing
- Administration
- Human Resources
- Operations
- Customer Service
- Telecommunications
- Financial

There were 5.5 million private sector businesses in the UK at the start of 2022. Most of these businesses are small, with less than 50 employees, 35,900 are medium sized, and 7,700 are large organisations. Small businesses employ nearly 48% of the population, while large organisations employ 39%.
