

General Patisserie and Confectionary Level 2

This course is designed for 19+ adults.

The Certificate in General Patisserie and Confectionary Level 2 course is designed for 19+ adults who already work or are aspiring to work as a patisserie chef in the Hospitality and Catering sector.

Course fee: £616. You may be eligible to study this course for free or access financial support.

Progression opportunities

Your progression from this qualification will be the below pathways:

- Employment – This qualification will give you the skills required to gain employment in the hospitality and culinary arts industry.
- Level 3 Certificate in General Patisserie and Confectionery

Entry Requirements

The entry requirements for this course are:

- Level 1 in a relevant qualification
- You will be required to attend an informal interview which may include completing an assessment based on your prior qualifications.

What will I study?

You will be trained and assessed across the following areas:

- The course consists on the following modules:
- Produce dough and batter products
- Produce petits fours
- Produce paste products
- Produce hot, cold and frozen desserts
- Produce biscuits, cake and sponges

Disclaimer:

Every effort has been made to ensure the details contained in this leaflet are up-to-date and accurate at the time of printing. However, the College reserves the right to alter or cancel courses, their content, entry requirements, fees or other details should circumstances dictate.

- Produce display pieces and decorative items
- Practical assessment module

How will I be assessed?

You will be assessed through:

- Observation and knowledge questions
- Practical assessments and written assignments

Disclaimer:

Every effort has been made to ensure the details contained in this leaflet are up-to-date and accurate at the time of printing. However, the College reserves the right to alter or cancel courses, their content, entry requirements, fees or other details should circumstances dictate.